NEW BUSINESS

Welcome from Mayor Girard

Mayor Girard read a statement welcoming the new City Council; some items included were:

- Progress in Claremont including the 83 new apartments on Water Street and the Pleasant Street Revitalization Project
- City assets (parks, City-owned buildings, City Staff)
- Councilors should respond when citizens reach out to them
- Decisions made by the whole Council should be respected by all Councilors
- Councilors should be respectful during Council meetings
- Councilor seats on boards/commissions/committees need to be filled at the January 12th Council meeting
- Over the next few months, the Council will be working to replace City Manager Ed Morris; Interim City Manager will be John MacLean

- Councilors are expected to review Council packets before the meeting and be ready to discuss agenda items
- Over the next couple of months, Council needs to determine its goals and objectives
- Council needs to establish its objectives for the next budget season

Mayor Girard thanked Mr. Morris for his service to the City of Claremont for the last 2+ years. Mr. Morris' last day is Friday, and then he will be moving on to be the new Town Manager of Enfield, New Hampshire.

Mr. Morris thanked Mayor Girard for the kind words and said that Claremont is set up for doing great things. There are a lot of good projects and development going on in the City.

ADJOURNMENT

At 6:47 p.m., a motion was made by Assistant Mayor Matteau and seconded by Councilor O'Hearne to adjourn.

Voice vote: motion carried 9-0.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dorée M. Russell
Clerk to the Council
