TAC Updates

Chief Wilmot noted the Traffic Advisory Committee is an advisory committee of the Council, and currently consists of voting members Chief Wilmot, Chief Chamberlain, Director Gleeson, whereas the City manager is an advisory member.

Chief Wilmot stated there are members of the public here who made a request to the Traffic Advisory Committee, for a crosswalk at the intersection of South Street and Highland Street- the Traffic Advisory Committee is not recommending this change due to guidance set through the Department of Transportation on crosswalks. Chief has met with these residents, and explained the rationale as to why it is not being recommended.

Chief Wilmot then read through other Traffic Advisory requests:

Broad Street re-design- several people have come before the TAC expressing their misgivings about the merge at Glidden/Broad Street intersection. Chief Wilmot along with Chief Chamberlain met with the Superintendent of schools and discussed moving student parking off of Broad Street and noted the BETA Group is currently doing additional work on new ideas for how we can re-tool that intersection.

Speed limit on Broad Street - is currently 20 miles per hour, and the recommendation is that the posting be changed to 30 miles per hour to comport with state law.

Spring Street – Claremont Learning Partnership- has added an ADA entrance in the back, on Spring Street at the apex of that road, there was a prior request to add a crosswalk there, a traffic count was done back in August 2022, based on this the TAC does not think this crosswalk is advisable. However, the Claremont Learning Center has added an ADA entrance and ramp to that area and reapproached the Traffic Advisory Committee. Chief Wilmot noted the owners have stated there have been several near misses and one recently in the back. The Traffic Advisory Committee with the guidance from NHDOT does not recommend a crosswalk but would recommend some sort of traffic calming devices to be placed temporarily on Spring Street.

Sullivan Street Cross Walk- A petition for a cross walk on Walnut Street was given to the Traffic Advisory Committee from Frances J Tolles Home members. They had concerns about speeding, Chief Wilmot added more Patrol, and a traffic Count will be done through the department of public works, but based on guidance from NHDOT the Traffic Advisory Committee would not recommend a crosswalk.

Another Petition came before the Traffic Advisory Committee from the Ivy League Neighborhood about paving in that neighborhood, Director Gleeson explained to them Infrastructure work was on-going and now complete.

Request for a cross walk at Glidden and Middle Street for pedestrians to safely access the bakery, but there is a crosswalk at Broad and Glidden, that and guidance from NHDOT, the TAC does not recommend a crosswalk.

Barber Street one way traffic- a traffic count was held in August of 2023, it was found that there is 660 vehicles that travel Barber Street from the direction of High Street towards Broad Street, there is 891 vehicles traveling from Broad Street to High Street. Chief Wilmot shared concern for vehicles parked on Barber Street by the Library, that it constricts the roadway to such a degree that two-way travel becomes dangerous. The recommendation from the TAC is to bring forward an Ordinance change to make Barber Street one way.

Council agrees to hear from resident Tina Pavlovich.

Tina Pavlovich Ward II, lives on Highland Ave., put in request for a crosswalk. Ms. Pavlovich stated her appreciation for the Chief explaining the reasoning why a crosswalk couldn't be put in.

Elizabeth Graham, Ward I, lived in the Barber St. area for twenty years, and has been concerned for this street since Broad Street was re-done, and expressed she would love to see Barber Street become one way.

Councilor Koloski would like to see this come back in draft form.

By Consensus City Council agrees to bring back a draft ordinance.

Request to Name City Owned Property

Chief Wilmot presented the request to re-name the Detective Division, and read his memo to the Council:

RE: Detective Division Naming

Dear Manager Manale and the Honorable City Council:

On December 28, 2023 Captain Colby D. Casey (ret.) passed away following a brief period of illness. At the time of his passing, Captain Casey was an active member of the Claremont Police Department, serving in a part-time capacity as an Investigator and Chief Recruitment Officer. Captain Casey also served as our Evidence Custodian, a role he filled for the past two decades. Captain Casey began working for the City of Claremont in 1992, and retired from full-time service in 2013.

Captain Casey dedicated 31 years of his life in service to the citizens of Claremont, many of those years serving in the Detective Division as a juvenile detective, a major case detective, and then as the Commander in charge of the Division. Captain Casey's investigative acumen was second-to-none, and his skills, particularly in conducting interviews, were admired by his colleagues everywhere. He had an unmatched ability to communicate with anyone with whom he came into contact. In his 31 years of service, he was honored with numerous commendations and public recognition; including the Gallantry Star, Meritorious Service, Employee of the Year, and dozens of unit citations for a variety of exemplary actions. Captain Casey made a lasting impact on everyone with whom he worked, and embodied the spirit of a public servant, leaving an indelible mark on our department and the City of Claremont as a whole.

May 15, 2024 was National Peace Officer Memorial Day. Police Week and Peace Officers Memorial Day began by way of Presidential proclamation in 1962 with President John F. Kennedy. In his proclamation, President Kennedy asked that "the people of this nation join together in commemorating police officers, past and present, who by their faithful and loyal devotion to their responsibilities have rendered a dedicated service to their communities and, in so doing, have established for themselves an enviable and enduring reputation for preserving the rights and security of all citizens."

During the evening of Wednesday, May 15, a meeting of the Claremont Police Commission was held at the Atrium of the Opera House. At that meeting, the Claremont Police Department presented Captain Casey's widow, Terri, with a plaque honoring his service and dedicating the Detective Division, a room within the police department, in his name. Now, to formalize that process according to City Code, Chief Wilmot would like to make a presentation to the Honorable Claremont City Council, seeking their majority approval for the re-naming of the Claremont Police Department Detective Division to the Colby D. Casey Detective Division.

DRAFT

Council Meeting

July 10, 2024

Chapter 16, Article V of the Claremont City Code deals with the Naming of City-Owned Property. Section 16-110 vests the Claremont City Council with the sole designating authority for naming all city-owned property, and states that the decision on whether or not to name a specific city-owned building, park, trail, street, parking lot or other facility or property shall be by majority vote of the city council, after public hearing duly noticed. Further, all proposals to name or rename city-owned property located in the historic district should be considered for an opinion by the Historic District Commission prior to final consideration by the city council.

In this particular case, Chief Wilmot has received written notice from the Historic District Commission, that such formal approval will not be necessary. While the Claremont Police Department is located within the Historic District, formal approval for the naming of an interior room within a building does not need to go before the Commission. A copy of that letter has been appended to this memorandum.

Requests to name city-owned property may be made in writing by the mayor, assistant mayor, city councilor, city manager, city board, commission or committee or citizen, detailing how the proposal meets the criteria as set forth in the City Code. Being a citizen of the City of Claremont, and its Chief of Police, I am formally requesting this name change in writing. This written request is also being given with the full support of the Honorable Claremont Police Commission, who are signatories on this memorandum.

According to the City Code, Section 16-111, the following criteria for naming of city-owned property shall be considered by the city council in approving a request to name city-owned property, other than streets:

1. Context and geographical locations, reflecting the name in common use, function or significance of the property;
2. Natural or geological features of the property that are distinctive or physically prominent;
3. Historic significance that may be:
 - a. Associated with an event or series of related events in the city's history;
 - b. Associated with one (1) or more individuals who have played a significant role in the city's historic development or government;
 - c. Reflective of a distinctive artistic, scientific or literary achievement;
 - d. Related to an existing or proposed historic property or district designated or eligible to be designated as historic by either federal or state government.
4. Contributions to the city, including but not limited to:
 - a. An individual or organization that has made a significant direct contribution of property or of money for the construction and/or development of a city facility;
 - b. An individual's significant public service, whether as a private citizen or public servant; however, generally city-owned property will not be named after a deceased person until at least one (1) year after the date of death, except where, in the sole discretion of the city council, the individual's contribution merits immediate recognition.
 - c. A living person may be considered with a two-thirds vote of the city councilors present.

Captain Casey was a dedicated public servant, earnestly serving the City of Claremont for 31 years. His contributions to the Claremont Police Department and its mission will have positive impacts on the residents, the employees of the city and the law enforcement profession for generations to come. For this reason, and the reasons listed at the opening of this memorandum, we are respectfully requesting that the Detective Division be formally re-named to the Colby O. Casey Detective Division.

While the City Code indicates that city-owned property will generally not be named after a deceased person until at least one (1) year after the date of death, it does provide for an exception, where in the sole discretion of the city council, the individual's contribution merits immediate recognition. Chief Wilmot would be honored to provide a presentation to the Claremont City Council, explaining the myriad reasons why the above-listed criteria have been met in furtherance of the re-naming of the Detective Division (room) in Captain Casey's name. Further, he would be willing to share why, in his opinion, the one year requirement can be waived in this instance, and the Detective Division can be re-named after only six months following Colby's untimely passing.

Motion to Name the Colby D. Casey Detective Division

The Claremont Police Department wishes to re-name the Detective Division, contained within the Claremont Police Station, to the Colby D. Casey Detective Division. The request has been reviewed by the Claremont Historic District Commission (as the Police department is located within the Historic District), and due to the fact that the proposed alterations (a plaque bearing his name, erected adjacent to the door) are entirely within the building, prior approval from the HDC is not required. Furthermore, the request to re-name this room comports with Claremont City Code, Chapter 16, Article V (Naming of City-Owned Property). Therefore, the Claremont City Council hereby authorizes the Chief of Police to re-name the Detective Division to the Colby D. Casey Detective Division.

Ordinance 632 Disabled Tax Exemption – First Reading

Assessor, Stephen Hamilton also explained the Disabled Tax exemption and how it is different from the elderly exemption. The elderly exemption program is required in statute, every community must grant the elderly exemption program. Its up to the community how much to grant in that exemption amount, and the qualification standards. The disability exemption is optional, only 111 of the 259 taxing jurisdictions in New Hampshire have adopted the disability exemption program, but only 89 of the communities grant any disability according to last years figures provided by the DRA.

Resolution 2025-7 Washington Street Bond – Public Hearing

office would have to start working with bond council now, and then would come back with a bond resolution for the Council to vote on.

Councilor Greenrose and Assistant Mayor Matteau are okay with that change.

Councilor Koloski stated he can't support this amount and wants the Bowen intersection backed out of the amount.

Mayor Girard shared concerns about the fund balance.

Manager Manale understands the concerns about fund balance, but reassured the City has spoken to auditors and DRA they also feel comfortable with the amount we could be taking out.

Councilor Hemingway asked how soon do we have to start working to get the bond for October. Director Bates stated right away.

Assistant Mayor Matteau is concerned about losing the bid price, and would hate to see it increase due to inflation.

Assistant Mayor Matteau stated the need to go through a couple of things. One, would be to start the bond work adding there is nothing to lose by starting to work with the Bond Council, but there is a timeline involved and the Council still has authority to say yay or nay. Assistant Mayor Matteau doesn't think the Council should close this door. Number two, is whether the Council wants to keep current bid and do fund balance and keep Bowen Street intersection or not, but doesn't think this part needs to be decided on tonight. Assistant Mayor Matteau suggested the City Manager ask the current bidder to take Bowen out and have DPW come back to tell us their recommendation.
