City Planner, Austin Ford and Assessor, Stephen Hamilton presented Resolution 2025-61, the Applicant was not present.

City Planner Ford and Assessor Hamilton gave an overview of the 79-E process.

Assistant Mayor Matteau stated the deadline for this project was 2021 which did not happen, and also appears the property was not reassessed. According to the owner from the last Council meeting the bulk of the project was completed for the last two years and the assessing records don’t reflect this and wants to know why.

Assessor Hamilton noted not every single property in the City every single year on April 1st is observed, so there are systems in place to make sure the City is aware of the properties that are under construction and receiving building permits and getting inspections, and occupancy certificates, and noted the City was not receiving these for this property.

Assessor Hamilton explained that the way a 79E works is that someone receives a locked-in value before a covenant is signed, but not until after construction is completed. Essentially the assessment the City had on this property reflected what the belief was of the value on April 1st of 2021, and then the subsequent April 1st as it moved along in that process. Vision did the reevaluation of all properties and did not change the value on this property and assuming its because the understanding was there was no completion of construction through the time frame. Councilor Koloski asked if the certificate of occupancy been issued, Planner Ford noted it was in process of review.

Assistant Mayor Matteau questioned if the property has not been re-assessed because the applicant didn’t file the proper permits, and noted the owner sits on the planning board, and should be aware of the permits that needed to be pulled, Assistant Mayor Matteau stated she has an issue with this.

Planner Ford agrees this process this was done incorrectly and has learned a lot in the past few months.

Mayor Girard stated he had a discussion with Councilor Hemingway about Section 79E 13 Item 1A where it describes how the substantial rehabilitation from under the conditions approved is not part of the reassessment but then goes on to say not to those increases attributable to other factors including but not limited to market forces. Mayor Girard asked if the market forces would be the overall increases in value that our community received during the recent assessments.

Assessor Hamilton explained during the construction phase it's the condition and market forces that apply to the building and through those tax years. The belief after not having received any certificates of occupancy or building permits that described what was spent on the renovation. Without any of this information the City only had what was known in the beginning of the process and noted if there is no longer a 79-E on the property in 2025 it will be assessed at full value for the December bill.
